Report of Independent Auditors

To the Members of

Al-Marsad Arab Human Rights Centre in Golan Heights (A.R.)

I have audited the accompanying report on the financial position of Al-Marsad Arab Human Rights Centre in Golan Heights (A.R.), (hereafter – the “Amutah”) as of December 31st, 2024 and 2023, the statements of activities reports, and the statements of changes in net assets for the year ended then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the committee and management of the Amutah. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, including those prescribed by the Auditors' Regulations (Auditor's Mode of Performance) – 1973. These standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosure in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the committee and management of the Amutah, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the above financial statements present fairly in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles for non-profit organization in all material respects, the financial position of the Amutah as of December 31st, 2024 and 2023, the results of its activities, and the changes in net assets for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (Israeli GAAP).

Sincerely Yours,

Singer Daniel
